Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 7, 2018, Fortive Corporation (“Fortive”) announced that it and Stevens Holding Company, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Fortive (“Newco”), had entered into definitive agreements with Altra Industrial Motion Corp., a Delaware corporation (“Altra”), and McHale Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Altra (“Merger Sub”), for a transaction pursuant to which, subject to the terms and conditions of certain definitive agreements, (1) Fortive will transfer certain assets, liabilities and entities within its Automation & Specialty platform, but excluding its Hengstler and Dynapar businesses (such businesses to be transferred, the “A&S Business”) to Newco, (2) Fortive will distribute to its stockholders all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Newco (the “Newco Common Stock”) held by Fortive, at Fortive’s option, by way of an exchange offer or a pro rata dividend, or a combination thereof (the “Distribution”) and (3) immediately after the Distribution, Merger Sub will merge with and into Newco (the “Merger”) and the issued and outstanding shares of Newco Common Stock will be converted into shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share, of Altra (“Altra Common Stock”) as provided in the Merger Agreement. In addition, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, prior to the effective time of the Merger, Fortive will transfer certain non-U.S. assets, liabilities and entities of the A&S Business to certain subsidiaries of Altra, and the Altra subsidiaries will assume substantially all of the liabilities associated with the transferred assets (the “Direct Sales”). Upon completion of the Merger, Newco (which at that time will hold the A&S Business) will be a wholly-owned subsidiary of Altra and holders of Fortive’s common stock participating in the Distribution are expected to own in the aggregate approximately 54% of the outstanding shares of Altra common stock immediately following the Merger, subject to adjustment as provided in the Merger Agreement. The Distribution and the Merger are expected to be tax-free to Fortive’s stockholders, except to the extent that cash is paid to Fortive’s stockholders in lieu of fractional shares in the Distribution or Merger.

The definitive agreements entered into include (1) an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization, dated as of March 7, 2018 (the “Merger Agreement”), by and among Fortive, Altra, Merger Sub and Newco, (2) a Separation and Distribution Agreement, dated as of March 7, 2018 (the “Separation Agreement”), by and among Fortive, Altra and Newco and (3) an Employee Matters Agreement, dated March 7, 2018 (the “Employee Matters Agreement”), by and among Fortive, Altra and Newco. In connection with the transactions, Fortive, Altra and Newco have entered, or will enter into additional agreements, including, among others:

- a Tax Matters Agreement among Fortive, Altra and Newco, which will govern the parties’ respective rights, responsibilities and obligations with respect to taxes, tax attributes, the preparation and filing of returns, the control of audits and other tax proceedings and assistance and cooperation in respect of tax matters, in each case related to tax matters of Fortive and the A&S Business after the transaction, and will restrict the parties from taking certain actions that could cause the transactions to fail to qualify as tax-free transactions;
- a Transition Services Agreement among Fortive, Altra and Newco, pursuant to which Fortive and its affiliates will, on a transitional basis, provide Newco, and Newco will, on a transitional basis, provide Fortive with certain support services and other assistance after the transaction; and
- certain intellectual property licenses.

The Separation Agreement

The Separation Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions regarding the separation of the A&S Business from Fortive. The Separation Agreement identifies and provides for the transfer of certain assets and entities by Fortive to Newco and the assumption of certain liabilities by Newco from Fortive.

The Separation Agreement also governs the rights and obligations of Fortive and Newco regarding the distribution of Newco Common Stock to Fortive’s stockholders. At Fortive’s election, the Distribution may be effected by means of a pro-rata distribution of Newco Common Stock to Fortive’s stockholders or through an exchange offer of common stock of Fortive for Newco Common Stock, which may be followed by a pro rata, clean-up distribution of unsubscribed shares, or a combination thereof.

Additionally, immediately prior to the effective time and as a condition to the Distribution, Newco will make distributions to Fortive of cash and debt instruments of Newco with an aggregate value of $400 million. The cash portion of such distribution is expected to be $150 million (the "Cash Dividend"). Fortive expects to exchange the Newco debt instruments (the "Debt Exchange") for outstanding debt obligations of Fortive.

The Separation Agreement also sets forth other agreements between Fortive and Newco related to the Distribution, including provisions concerning the termination and settlement of intercompany accounts, obtaining the necessary governmental approvals and third-party consents. The Separation Agreement governs certain aspects of the relationship between Fortive and Newco after the Distribution, including provisions with respect to release of claims, indemnification and treatment of outstanding guarantees. The parties have mutual ongoing indemnification obligations following the Distribution with respect to losses related to the A&S Business.

Consummation of the Distribution is subject to various conditions, including the satisfaction or waiver of all conditions under the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement

As described above, the Merger Agreement provides that, immediately following the consummation of the Distribution, Merger Sub will merge with and into Newco and each share of Newco Common Stock will be converted into the right to receive 35 million shares of Altra common stock (the "Altra Share Count"). The Merger Agreement provides that the Altra Share Count may be adjusted if Fortive elects to reduce the Altra Share Amount to account for a shortfall in the EBITDA Statement (as defined in the Merger Agreement) delivered at closing, but in no event shall the Altra Share Count represent less than 50.1% of the outstanding shares of Altra common stock. After the Merger is completed, Newco will be a wholly-owned subsidiary of Altra.

Additionally, the Merger Agreement provides that the Direct Sales will be completed for a purchase price of $1.0 billion. The Merger Agreement also provides that in connection with the Merger, one individual selected by Fortive will be appointed to Altra's Board of Directors.

Fortive (on behalf of itself and Newco), Altra and Merger Sub each make certain representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among other things, covenants by Altra to carry on its operations in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the Merger and not to take certain actions prior to the closing of the Merger without the prior approval of Fortive. In addition, Fortive also agreed to cause the A&S Business to be conducted in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice during the interim period and not to take certain actions prior to the closing of the Merger without the approval of Altra. Altra and Fortive have also agreed to certain non-solicitation covenants in the Merger Agreement.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to various conditions, including, among others, approval of the issuance of the Altra Common Stock by the requisite vote of Altra's stockholders; the effectiveness of Altra's registration statement registering the Altra Common Stock to be issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement; the Distribution having taken place in accordance with the Separation Agreement; the expiration of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and the receipt of certain required foreign antitrust approvals; receipt of certain tax rulings from the Internal Revenue Service; and consummation of the Debt Exchange in an amount equal to or greater than the Above-Basis Amount (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and receipt by Fortive of the Cash Dividend immediately before the Distribution.

The Merger Agreement contains specified termination rights for Fortive and Altra, including that either party may terminate in the event that the Merger is not consummated by December 7, 2018, which date may be extended by either Fortive or Altra to February 12, 2019 (the "End Date") if either the Debt Exchange has not been consummated or regulatory approvals have not been received but all other closing conditions have been satisfied. Either party may also terminate the Merger Agreement if the approval of the issuance of the Altra Common Stock has not been obtained at a duly convened meeting of Altra's stockholders.

Altra will owe Fortive a termination fee equal to $40 million if (i) an Ainge Triggering Event (as defined in the Merger Agreement) (other than due to Altra breaching its non-solicitation covenant) occurs and Fortive terminates the Merger Agreement, (ii) the Merger shall not have been consummated by the End Date or Altra shall have breached either its non-solicitation or stockholders meeting covenants and an Acquisition Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement) was made prior to termination and Altra enters into a definitive agreement or consummates an Acquisition Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement) within 12 months of termination of the Merger Agreement and either Altra or Fortive terminates the Merger Agreement, (iii) Altra terminates the Merger Agreement in order to enter into a definitive agreement to consummate an Ainge Superior Offer (as defined in the Merger Agreement), (iv) either Altra or Fortive terminates the Merger Agreement and at the time of termination all conditions to closing other than the Distribution (as defined in the Merger Agreement), Debt Exchange (as defined in the Merger Agreement), Fortive's receipt of the Cash Dividend (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and conditions which by their nature are to be satisfied only at closing are satisfied and the Marketing Period (as defined in the Merger Agreement) has not ended because Altra has not provided to the Financing Sources (as defined in the Merger Agreement) the Required Ainge Financial Information that is Compliant (as defined in the Merger Agreement) or otherwise in satisfaction of the requirements of the Marketing Period or (v) Fortive terminates the Merger Agreement because the Marketing Period shall have ended, all of Altra's closing conditions have been satisfied, the closing has not occurred by the End Date, Fortive has provided written notice to Altra of the satisfaction of Altra's closing conditions and Fortive's willingness to close and Altra fails to consummate the closing between the earlier of the End Date and three business days following receipt of Fortive's notice.

Fortive will owe Altra a termination fee equal to $40 million if Fortive determines that the Debt Exchange is not reasonably likely to be consummated at or prior to the End Date in an amount equal to the Above-Basis Amount and Fortive chooses to terminate the Merger Agreement.

In addition, the Merger Agreement provides that Altra will reimburse Fortive's expenses in an amount up to $5.0 million if the Merger Agreement is terminated because Altra's stockholders do not approve the issuance of Altra Common Stock.

Employee Matters Agreement

The Employee Matters Agreement, among other things, allocates between the parties the pre-and post-closing liabilities in respect of the employees ("Newco Employees") of the A&S Business transferred to Newco (including liabilities in respect of Fortive's employee benefit plans) and establishes certain required treatment of the Newco Employees by Altra.

The Employee Matters Agreement provides that, beginning on the closing and ending on December 31, 2019, Altra will generally provide each Newco Employee who is not covered by a collective bargaining agreement or similar arrangement with (i) base compensation at least equal to that provided to the Newco Employee immediately prior to the closing, (ii) short-term and long-term incentive compensation opportunities that are no less favorable in the aggregate than those in effect for the Newco Employee immediately prior to the closing and (iii) health, welfare, retirement and automobile allowance benefits with a value that is substantially similar in the aggregate to that provided to the Newco Employee immediately prior to the closing (or cash in lieu thereof), to the extent communicated to Altra, required by law or customary in the applicable jurisdiction. Each Newco Employee who is located in the United States and incurs a qualifying termination on or before December 31, 2019 will generally be entitled to receive the severance benefits that are substantially similar to those that would have been provided by Fortive upon a qualifying termination of employment immediately prior to the closing.

In addition, the Employee Matters Agreement provides that each stock option relating to shares of Fortive common stock that is held by a Newco Employee and is vested and exercisable as of immediately prior to the closing will generally remain outstanding for 90 days following the closing. Each restricted stock unit relating to shares of Fortive common stock that is held by a Newco Employee and is vested as of immediately prior to the closing will be settled in shares of Fortive common stock as soon as practicable after the closing.

All stock options and restricted stock units relating to shares of Fortive common stock that are held by a Newco Employee and that are not vested immediately before the closing will be cancelled by Fortive immediately before the closing and replaced by Altra with equity awards relating to shares of Altra common stock (or cash settled awards) in respect of the value of the cancelled Fortive stock options and restricted stock units held by the Newco Employee immediately before the closing, subject to certain offsets by Fortive as provided in the Employee Matters Agreement.

Newco Commitment Letter

On March 7, 2018, Newco entered into a commitment letter (the "Bridge Commitment Letter") with Goldman Sachs Bank USA ("GS") pursuant to which GS commits to provide $400 million in aggregate principal amount of senior unsecured increasing rate bridge loans (the "Bridge Loans"), such amount to be reduced by the amount of gross cash proceeds received by Newco from the issuance of senior unsecured notes on or prior to the closing date and by the principal amount of senior unsecured notes issued by Newco to Fortive and transferred pursuant to the Debt Exchange. The proceeds of any Bridge Loans will be used by Newco on the closing date to make the cash payment to Fortive in an amount not to exceed $400 million and to pay fees, costs and expenses in connection with the Transactions (as defined below). The commitments under the Bridge Commitment Letter are subject to customary closing conditions. All obligations of Newco with respect to the Bridge Loans will be guaranteed by each direct or indirect wholly-owned domestic subsidiary of Newco, and following the effective time of the Merger, by Altra and its direct or indirect wholly-owned domestic subsidiaries (other than Newco), subject to customary exceptions.

Fortive Announces Agreement to Combine Automation and Specialty Businesses with Altra Industrial Motion Corp.

EVERETT, WA, March 7, 2018—Fortive Corporation (“Fortive”) (NYSE: FTV) today announced that it has entered into a definitive agreement to combine four operating companies from its Automation & Specialty platform (“A&S platform”) with Altra Industrial Motion Corp (“Altra”) (NASDAQ: AIMC) in a tax-efficient transaction, creating a pure-play, global leader in the power transmission and motion control market. Total consideration to Fortive and its shareholders is approximately $3.0 billion, including $1.4 billion in cash proceeds and debt reduction for Fortive and 35 million newly issued Altra common shares to Fortive’s shareholders, valued at approximately $1.6 billion based on the 20-day volume weighted average stock price of Altra shares.

James A. Lico, President and Chief Executive Officer of Fortive, stated, “We are excited about today’s announcement as it represents a major step forward in our portfolio enhancement work towards increasing our focus on software and service exposure, while adding significantly to our M&A capacity. This business combination represents significant value creation for both Fortive and Altra shareholders, customers and employees.

“We have great respect for the Altra team and their commitment to continuous improvement and customer satisfaction. This combination of powerful brands and remarkable people creates an organization well-positioned to capture robust Industry 4.0 growth opportunities,” said Mr. Lico.

Carl Christenson, Chairman and CEO of Altra, stated, “This transaction transforms Altra and represents a major milestone towards accelerating our acquisition strategy. The addition of the A&S platform bolsters our ability to compete effectively on a larger and more global scale in the broader automation space, to further our continuous improvement journey, and to optimize our portfolio in an expanded acquisition universe.”

The A&S platform business includes the market-leading brands of Kollmorgen, Thomson, Portescap and Jacobs Vehicle Systems. The A&S platform generated approximately $907 million in revenue for its fiscal year ended December 2017.

The combination will be effected as a Reverse Morris Trust, which is expected to be tax-efficient to Fortive. Fortive shareholders will receive shares representing approximately 54.4% of the issued and outstanding shares of Altra after giving effect to the transaction and valued at approximately $1.6 billion. In addition, Fortive will directly receive added consideration of $1.4 billion through a combination of cash proceeds and debt reduction.

Until closing, which is expected to occur by the end of 2018, the A&S platform businesses will operate within the Industrial Technology segment of Fortive, and financial results will be reported in continuing operations.

Fortive will have the right to designate one member of Altra's board of directors, expected to initially be Patrick J. Murphy, Senior Vice President of Fortive.

Transaction Overview

The combined revenue of Altra and the four A&S businesses on a trailing 12 months basis was approximately $1.8 billion, making it a leading pure-play in power transmission and motion control.

Under the terms of the definitive transaction agreements, Fortive will create a wholly-owned subsidiary to hold the A&S platform (the "A&S subsidiary") and will distribute ownership of that A&S subsidiary to Fortive shareholders in either a split-off or spin-off transaction, which will be followed by a merger of the A&S subsidiary with a subsidiary of Altra. The A&S subsidiary will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Altra. If Fortive elects a split-off, its shareholders would have the opportunity to exchange their shares for the shares of the A&S subsidiary. If Fortive elects a spin-off, the shares of the A&S subsidiary will be distributed to all of its shareholders on a pro rata basis. Fortive will determine which approach it will take prior to closing the transaction.

In a split-off, Fortive expects the dilution impact to its net earnings per diluted share would be approximately 8-9% on an annual basis as a result of the distribution, which will likely be more than offset by the significant increase in M&A capacity.

The transaction is expected to close by the end of 2018, subject to customary closing conditions, including receipt of certain regulatory approvals, Altra shareholder approval and the receipt by Fortive of confirmation of the tax treatment of certain matters.

UBS Investment Bank served as financial advisor to Fortive and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP served as legal counsel to Fortive.

Fortive and Altra will hold a joint conference call today at 8:30 a.m. ET. The call and an accompanying slide presentation will be webcast on the "Investors" section of the website, www.fortive.com, under "Events & Presentations." A replay of the webcast will be available at the same location shortly after the conclusion of the presentation.
